

Oh You, Who Would Be Wise

inspired by a Ute prayer, the Medicine Wheel, and Native American wisdom

Carrie Bastian
Mike Lemieux

$\text{♩} = 76$

Em D6 Cmaj7 D2 Em

1. Earth, teach me qui - et, as the grass is still with new light.
 2. Earth, teach me cour - age, as the tree that stands still, a - lone.
a tempo 3. Earth, teach re - new - al, as the seed that ris - es in spring.

Cmaj7 D Em D2 Cmaj7 Dsus

Earth, — teach me suf - fer - ing, as old stones sit with their mem - o -
Earth, — teach me lim - its, as the ants that crawl — on the Earth, may I for - get my - self, as the melt - ed snow for - gets its

Em Cmaj7 B7 Am9 Bm7 Cmaj7

ries. Earth, teach me hu - mil - i - ty, as blos - soms trem - ble ground. Earth, — teach me free - dom, — as the sea - birds life. Earth, — teach me to re - mem - ber kind - ness, as dry

D2 Em Cmaj7 D Em D6

with their new be - gin - nings. Earth, — teach me car - ing, sail up - on the sky. — Earth, teach me ac - cept - ance, fields — weep with rain. — Earth, — teach me trust, that

Cmaj7 D2 Em D/F# G

as — moth - ers care — for their young.
as the leaves that die — in the fall.
 I — may — love be - yond my fear.

Oh You, Who Would Be Wise - p. 2 of 2

C Am7 D Em D G B7

Look to the earth, to the riv - ers, to the trees, to the ea - gle who soars in the

C D Em D6 Cmaj7 B7sus

bright skies. Look to the wolf, to the buf - fa - lo, the bear, oh

Am7 Bm7 C2 /B Am7 D2 To Coda Em

you, who would be wise. Oh you, who would be wise.

D6 Cmaj7 D G B7+ C

O Great Spir - it, hear my _____

Am7 Em D2/F# G B7+ D.C. al Coda (to verse 3)

song. May I walk in beau - ty with each ris - ing sun. _____
poco rit.

Em D6 Cmaj7 D2

CODA

wise. Oh you, who would be

Em D6 Cmaj7 D2 E

wise. Oh you, who would be wise.

molto rit.