Workshop Evaluations

Building Bridges for Social Justice, August 24, 2019

At the end of the workshop participants were asked the following questions:

- What was the most important thing you learned or did today?
- Did you discover any "Bridges" that you could help build?
- What can the Council do to support your involvement in Social Justice?
- For the future, what topics, programs or discussions are important to address? Who should do this? When? Why?
- For next year What did we do well? What could be improved?

There were 11 people from the three ministry teams (Refugee: Cathy Sandstrom, Betty Van Gheluwe, Diana Borrero-Lowe; Climate: Sharon & Dennis Rockwood, Scott Smith, Claudia Fernsworth; & Racial Justice: Diane Ryssel, Don Stepich, Tom Neale & Eileen Oldag), Eileen Dingledein for raising the minimum wage, Joan Goodwin (unafilliated), Tess & Rev Sara and Marni Odermann, Sue Philley and Jim Bigelow from the Social Justice Council.

Evaluations

There are 11 anonymous evaluations, arbitrarily numbered from 1-11.

Question: What was the most important thing you learned or did today?

- 1. Whoo so much: Who's who; $ opps [funding opportunities?]; org processes
- 2. Connections with other teams are essential
- 3. no answer
- There is a group where I can make a difference and all new things to be aware of to make its goals bear fruit. The interrelatedness of many goals
- 5. Being connected to great issues
- 6. Our team is valued and integral to BUUF
- 7. That there is support for our vision and work. SWOT exercise
- 8. Feeling supported by and being supportive of other social justice groups
- 9. Work together
- 10. SWOT analysis tool
- 11. (Answer directed to next question) Importance of and opportunities for connections within BUUF and in the large community

Question: Did you discover any "Bridges" that you could help build?

- 1. With other ministries
- 2. Personal connections
- 3. Would like to learn more about racial justice
- 4. Involvement in changes/goals and getting to know other & new people
- 5. Being part of a larger world by sharing

- 6. Interconnections with other teams
- 7. Feeling of connection with other ministries
- 8. Bridges with community partners
- 9. Immigration/refugee statement
- 10. No
- 11. Answer from pervious question

Question: What can the Council do to support your involvement in Social Justice?

- Facilitate quick and clear communications when needed with Board and other allies,
 Calendaring, Publicity
- 2. Communicate as you are
- 3. Continue outreach to small ministries. It has been real helpful to have Sue Philley's wisdom & experience imparted to our ministry
- 4. Meetings and learning opportunities like this
- 5. Support cost of C.A.T. banner for the 9/20 event
- 6. Attend our meetings occasionally
- 7. Keep supporting us
- 8. Annual workshops such as this to continue the networking with social justice groups
- 9. More directed, shorter emails
- 10. ?
- 11. Practical guidance and directions, example: Proceeding with 8th principle resolution

Question: For the future, what topics, programs or discussions are important to address? Who should do this? When? Why?

- 1. Help getting 8th Principle in the open
- 2. Immigration & racial & climate should work together on one project to connect the dots
- 3. No answer
- 4. Not sure yet
- 5. Updates on the coming year
- 6. No answer
- 7. No answer
- 8. No answer
- 9. No answer
- 10. ?
- 11. Not sure

Question: For next year – [1] What did we do well? [2] What could be improved?

- 1. [1] Hard to offer advice, this was good
- 2. [1] It was excellent good flow, good materials
- 3. No answer no room on paper for response
- 4. [2] Have this weekly
- 5. [1] Format was good

- 6. [1] Excellent repeat
- 7. [1] Gave us your time. [2] Get us together to see each other's efforts
- 8. No answer no room on the paper for response
- 9. [1] Frame each Team's work. [2] Less tine for team building (we are already <unreadable word> teams)
- 10. [1] Good organization [2]?
- 11. [1] Interesting, valuable, interactive activities [2] Maybe more information in advance of the meeting